

Navy/Marine Corps Caucus--109th Congress

(31MAR06)

The Congressional Navy/Marine Corps Caucus is a bipartisan group that brings together members of Congress who have a common interest in preserving and promoting the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps. The Caucus shares the goal of a strong, well-equipped, and properly trained Navy and Marine Corps. By combining knowledge, resources, and experience, the Caucus educates those who are not familiar with or understand the dependency of some congressional districts on the Navy/Marine Corps team.
